

Cornell Notes	Topic: The Enlightenment Period and A Modest Proposal
Teacher: Chaney	Unit: Jonathan Swift & Satire Date: _____
Class: English IV

Essential Question:
How can we fight injustice?

Main Ideas/Key Points:	Notes:
Ireland, 1700's	Widespread _____ in Ireland due to the British's approach to dealing with their northern subjects, The Irish. Jonathan Swift sought to draw attention to the plight of his kinsmen, so he wrote a satirical _____ that shocked the Brits.
The World, 1700s	England and Scotland united to create _____. British Imperialism spread (to India). The American Revolution. The Irish Potato Famine.
The Enlightenment Period	Valued reason over _____. Valued logic over _____ (much different from The Restoration).
Satire	Criticism that desires to bring about _____. Swift wished to highlight the problems of the Irish poor.
Jonathan Swift	Critical of the British government. Took delight in revolting ideas that others would not approach.
More Notes

Summary:
